to him in purchase of his land. Witnesses: Mrs. Martha Blair and Bruce Blair.

Wed. Nov 16, 1785 [Is this correct year?]: Resuming case of William Ewing, Walter Buchanan and Jas. Ewing. That Jas. Ewing has, at least, made too free with spirituous liquors, for which he shall be admonished & cautioned in Session.

Apr 26, 1787: John Conner having made application for the ordinance of baptism to his child, it being intimated that the child was born some considerable time before nine months after his marriage. Witness: Mrs. McGaughey who performed as midwife. John Conner and Mary his wife were married on 29 June 1786 and the child born on 26 Feb following. Mary states that she had received some damage that might occasion the birth of the child, viz: that going one day to her father-in-law's she fell off a fence and that on the same day as she was getting on a high creature it pulled her down three times and that she did not find herself well from that time until the child was born. Moreover alledging that she was much alarmed & frightened by the situation of Mrs. Fletcher.

Jun 16, 1787: Continued the above case, Mrs. Wilson mother of said John, states that the child was very weakly. When an attempt was made to take blood of it, but a few drops could be got out of both feet.

Jun 29, 1787: Complaint by James Riddle that Jas. Black had expressed himself in an unchristian manner at John Murphy's, innkeeper. Postponed until after the harvest.

May 24, 1788: In complaint of James Riddle a deposition of Wm. Riddle is presented. James Black rebuked.

Jun 1, 1799: Sample Ross came before Session and related that he had a quarrel with Peter Comfire. Jno. Fletcher called who say Ross strike Comfire.
"William McCreary charged my with forcing the man over the North River without orders and Durst not go over My Self and went and 'Cist my mistris' and Booted the Seate out of my Britches. This is the charge by me. David Kennedy."

From a transcription by George Hiner at Round Hill, Adams Co, made in 1885.

since a number of Palatines are known to have emigrated thence, notably John Conrad Weiser. The area, from which the emigration poured, extended along both sides of the Rhine River and its tributaries, the Main and Neckar Rivers. It extended roughly from the junction of the Moselle and the Rhine south to Basle, Switzerland; and from Zweibrücken, alongside Lorraine, as far west along the Main as Baireuth, bordering the Upper (or Bavarian) Palatinate.<sup>4</sup>

Many causes were given for the unprecedented size of the emigration. That most frequently mentioned was devastation by war. The end of the Thirty Years' War left the Palatinate prostrate. True, some recovery came from this visitation was achieved, but the soil and the co-operation of the people were short-lived; in the latter part of the century the Palatinate was repeatedly the scene of the armies. Marshal Turenne thenceforth in 1674. Moreover, protracted fighting by the ruling princes, remaining from the latter part of the century, gave rise to a notable instance between the Archbishop of Cologne, the Duke of Lorraine, and the Elector of the Palatinate to vent his malice against the Palatinate. He had the Palatinate laid waste in 1689, following William III's "conquest." This made this step necessary. At a later date the Heidelberg ruins left behind were as "the most interesting ruins of the Palatinate."

During the War of the Spanish Succession, the French crossed the Rhine unexpectedly into southwestern Germany, plundering the Palatinate, Würtemberg, and the Upper Rhine Circle.<sup>7</sup> In September of the year 1702, a French army crossed the Rhine, having, in the English army, "over-run" the Palatinate and not only maintained a garrison but by contributions, sent money to the king for other affairs."<sup>8</sup> Not only was

Dear Mr. Reschke,

We are searching for the parents and siblings of Michael Fickel/Fickle. At age 25, Michael arrived in Philadelphia, 23 September 1734, on the ship Hope, sailing from Rotterdam, and last became from Cowes, England. Capt. Daniel Reid, Master. We have no information concerning his nationality; however, family tradition says he was from the Palatinate, while others say he was from Holland.

Michael settled near Slaymaker town at Gap, PA. He married Margaret Schleiermacher / Slaymaker.

We would appreciate any information you could provide regarding his origin.

What strategy could we pursue to continue our search?

Sincerely,

Caroline Fickle Hall

RACHEL FICKLE

Rachel Fickle was the daughter of Michael and Margaret (Slaymaker) Fickle. In 1794 she lived on a piece of land on the North side of Piney Creek, Frederick Co., MD. that was part of Michael and Margaret's plantation. When Margaret died in 1795 she left Rachel this property which consisted of about twenty-five acres on which she was then living.

Rachel died between the 7th and the 26th day of Feb. 1830. Frederick Co., MD.

Rachel willed these twenty-five acres to her niece Mary Fickle Stitley, daughter of Rachel's brother Jonathan, dec. Mary married John Stitley. Mary and John sold the land to Elias Grimes on 10 April 833.

Rachel's burial place is unknown.

Mary and John Stitley are buried in the Rocky Hill Cemetery on Copper Mine Road at the edge of Woodsboro, MD, beside Grace Lutheran Church.

John was born 3 Jan. 1785 and died in 1864 at age 79y ? 21da. His wife Mary was born 30 Apr./July 1793 and died 22 Sept 1876 at the age of 83y 4/1 mo and 22 da.

SWEET WILL AND I FELT THE SPIRIT SO STRONG WHEN READING THE WILL.

I think this Rachel Fickle is not the dau of Michael & Margaret.

Would be interested in your comments after checking the enclosed documents -

Michael & Margaret's son Benjamin is my ancestor. Those of us who are researching him do not believe his 1st wife's name was Mary. We believe this is a misinterpretation of a <sup>military</sup> document that has Mary written at the side & probably refers to Maryland. Also an error in another document's interpretation where Filpatrick was separated. The ~~P~~ looked like an R so the name became Catherine Rilli and since Patrick appeared at the beginning of the next line - this gave Benjamin a son named Patrick. We have documents that verify that Catherine married William Filpatrick. This error became wide spread & we are trying to have it corrected.

I have an office in Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War that requires most of my time so will have to put aside my genealogy research for a while. However when I received your file from my cousin I wanted to give you the enclosed documents and would like to have your comments concerning them.

Am also interested in learning which of Michael & Margaret's children you descend.

Thanks & look forward to hearing from you.

Hello Rowena,

Hope you are doing well today. Got your packet the other day and am now looking at the Robinett file.

I acquired the Robinett file from a dear church member before he passed away several years ago. I cannot confirm any of his information! I just answer queries of his file contents. He did thorough work in his genealogy and spent a lot of time at it.

We are lucky to have the disk file! His wife threw all his notes etc away when he died!

Sorry I can't help on the file data. I am no way connected to the names on his disk.

[72] JOSEPH FICKLE [3/92]

Joseph Fickle is reported to have been born in Frederick Co., Md. in 1749. This has to be in error as his parents were living in Lancaster Co., Pa. at that time and later lived in Huntington Co., Twp. in York Co., Pa. before moving to Frederick Co., Md in 1763. His parents were [144] Michael Fickle and [145] Catharine Schelieremacher, which was Americanized to Slaymaker. Joseph was married about 1770 to an Elizabeth who is reported to have been born in England. Very little else is known about Joseph's wife until they started having children.

Joseph and Elizabeth lived in Frederick Co., while their family formed. The following listing of their children contains most of the data I have been able to research.

| Name       | Birth Date | Birth Place        | Spouse            |
|------------|------------|--------------------|-------------------|

| Sally      | 178_       | " " "              | George Crosson    |
| William    | 1784       |                    | Ann Thompson      |
| (36)Daniel | 1793       | Monongalia Co., Va | (37) Hetty Tipton |
| Isaac      | 1795       | " " "              | Eliza Tipton      |
| Edward     | 1796/7     | " " "              | Rebecca           |

My line extends from [36] Daniel and his wife [37] Hetty Tipton.

While Joseph was in Maryland he was involved in several real estate transactions. I will only mention two, the first will identify his earliest recorded presence there and the other will help establish his approximate date of departure from Md.. A deed was written on 11 Dec 1778 where he and Elizabeth [who signed off her dower interest] sold 152 acres for 230 pounds in Frederick, Co., Md. as recorded in the courthouse in Deed Book WR-1 p. 250. This had to be about the time he left Md.. His last recorded instrument there was a deed where he disposed of real estate as executor for his deceased father's estate. The deed discloses that at this time he had already removed his residence to Monongalia Co., VA.. This was recorded 16 Oct 1784 in Deed Book WR-5 p. 187.

It appears that Joseph went to Monongalia Co., Va. now W. Va. with his brothers Gabriel and Benjamin. Gabriel had received a land entry in 1781 and the assumption is the brothers settled there together. The farm was located on the Va. side of the stateline between Va. and Pa. and on the east side of the countyline between Monongalia and Preston Co's.. It was near Fickle's place that the Preston County boundry was formed, when cut out of Monongalia Co. as mentioned on page 443 of the book The Monongalia Story, II. The Pioneers, by Earl L. Core.

There is a deed dated 4 Dec 1795 and recorded on 2 May 1796 indicating Joseph was in Monongalia Co. when he sold some land originally purchased by his father on 6 May 1766. He sold this 50 acres for 150 pounds to his brother, Matthias, per Deed Book WR-14, p 212-213 in Frederick Co., while Joseph was in Monongalia Co.. This land was on Piney Creek and called "Point" and "The Addition to Brookes Discovery on Rich Land".

Although, records in Monongalia are fairly complete there is not much on Joseph Fickle. County Court Record Book 1, p. 18 orders Joseph to repair the road running past his place, but I can find no deeds showing he actually owned land in this county. He was also listed as a voter there for a congressional election on 13 Apr 1803. And he also appears on the county tax rolls in 1804. This is the extent of the trail he left in this county over a twenty year period.

The next record of him is in Thorn Twp., Fairfield Co., Oh. where he appears on the 1806 tax rolls as he does again in 1813 the year of his death. It seems this part of Ohio was opening up to settlers about 1800, as I have other ancestors who were living in Frederick Co., Md. that had gone to this area of Ohio a year or two earlier, found land, filed claims, returned home, sold their holdings and moved their families in 1801-3. Joseph had originally come from this same area of Frederick Co. and apparently had heard of the opportunities in Fairfield Co., Oh.. It does not appear that either of his brothers went with him at that time, although Benjamin was in Ohio a short time later.

Joseph, as a resident of Fairfield Co., received Land Entry #742 from the USA for 161.79 acres on 10 Jul 1804 per Land Entry Book Vol. 12 p. 122. Other than the above, the only other records of Joseph in Fairfield Co., are his estate probate matters. This is recorded under Fairfield Probate Court Proceeding C, Case No. 96, dated 10 Apr 1813. The records in this file include Administrator's Bond, Inventory of personal property, List of buyers and amounts paid at the estate sale and papers for the appointment of guardians for his two youngest minor children Edward and Isaac.

MISS RUTH E. FICKEL

Dr. Luther J. Bennett, '01, holds his doctorate from Columbia University. Before coming to the Education faculty in 1924, he had established a high reputation in public-school work. As Superintendent of Schools in Miami County, he set something of a record for schools built under his administration. His hobbies are grand opera and weather maps.

Miss Ruth E. Fickel, '17, Associate Professor of English, has been a member of the faculty since her graduation. Her Master's degree is from the University of Pennsylvania, where she twice held the Bennett Scholarship. She spent a summer in study abroad also, at Oxford University. Visitors to her hospitable home enjoy her interesting collection of books and etchings.

Catharine "Caty" Wilson Sumner

Birth: Jan. 23, 1789
Bedford
Bedford County
Pennsylvania, USA
Death: Oct. 15, 1853
Lancaster
Fairfield County
Ohio, USA

From Find A Grave contributor gengramma:

Her first husband was Gen. John Williamson (1773-1820), married 1809 in Fairfield County, OH.

Her second husband was Col. John Sumner (1779-abt 1838), married 1828 in Fairfield County, OH.

Have not found their burials. We do not believe she had biological children from either marriage, but took on the responsibility as mother for the children of John Sumner.

DIED,
On Saturday 15th inst.; at the residence of Judge Radebaugh, Mrs. CATHARINE SUMNER, after an illness of four days.— She had sold her property and intended to remove to Kentucky in a few days to spend her declining years with her Niece; Mrs. Nourse. She was one of the earliest inhabitants of this county, and underwent the hardships incident to new settlements. At an early period she became a member of the Presbyterian church, and died in its bosom, with a firm reliance on salvation through Christ. Her many excellencies will long be remembered by our citizens.— She reached her 65th year and calmly sank to rest. B.
